The Party at the Wise House.

The lively, gay, joyous and merriment, finishing touches assembled at the Wise House, last Friday night by invitation of the landlady, Mrs. Fide Wise, and a more pleasant evening has not been spent in Hartford for a long time. Mrs. Wise, by her pleasant manners and kind attention, caused every one present to feel perfectly welcome. The music began to be heard about eight o'clock and soon the familiar voice of one of our landlady's young men called out: "Form a set," and from that time to three o'clock a. m., there were twenty-eight persons on the floor nearly all the time, joining in the merriment. We know it is the wish of all of us to repeat this pleasant room.

Here's Another.

Uncle John McKillop, one of our old and respected citizens is announced in this issue as a candidate for Judge. It would be a waste of time and space for us to attempt to tell the people of Ohio county anything about "Uncle John". They all know him as well as we do, and a great many will know him in the pinch of the game. He is a Simon-pure, thoroughbred Democrat, and like Mr. Sullenger, he is willing to abide by the decision of his party. Next.

By Reference to our candidates.

John P. Barrett, Esq., Hartford, Ky.
Dean S. I. Barrett lived at Horse Branch, Ky., and formerly a reader of the Herald for two years, and having moved to this town as telegraph operator for the P. & E. Co., I am lost without the Herald. Success to the Herald.
Yours, etc., L. P. RALPH.

A Leading Grocery Firm.

By reference to our advertising columns, you will find the card of Carson, Bowman & Co., wholesale grocers at Louisville, Ky. This is unquestionably the head-line indicates, a leading grocery house. Mr. James T. Carson, a well-known Green River Country man, is at the head of it, and a father, true, and more upright man than he, does not live in this country. The style of the firm was formerly Carson, Daniel & Co., but Mr. Daniel has withdrawn and Mr. Bowman has been admitted as a partner. From the start Mr. Carson has been the moving spirit of the firm, and all business has been conducted squarely and honestly. The firm at the outset secured the services of Mr. Harry Bridges, a young man of energy, pluck, good judgment, and strictly honest, who has proven to be one of the most popular salesmen in this part of the State. With such a sterling business man as James T. Carson at the head, and such a popular drummer boy as Harry Bridges, it is not surprising that in a few short years their house has taken the lead in their line of trade.

The Herald's Circulation-Attention, Advertisers.

Probably no paper published in so small a town as Hartford ever reached so wide a circulation in so short a time as the Herald. We have a subscriber in the Celestial Empire. The Herald circulates in twenty-two States and Territories in this country. It has an extensive circulation in this State, and can boast of actual bona fide subscribers in forty-three counties in Kentucky. We have a large club of subscribers at every post-office in Ohio county, aggregating over one thousand, and a good circulation in forty-four towns, ranging in population from fifty to fifteen hundred, and five cities of three thousand inhabitants and upward, in the Green River Country, besides numerous other towns and cities in other parts of the State. And remember this is our second issue in the fourth year. In other words, the Herald is three years and two weeks old.

Changed Hands and Name.

The hotel on corner of public square, known as the Lyon House, has recently changed hands. Mr. L. J. Lyon and family have moved to their new home adjoining Mr. Lyon's grocery store, and Mrs. Fide Wise now has control of the hotel. It will be known hereafter as the Wise House. The house is very conveniently located, and Mrs. Wise proposes to keep it as it should be kept. She is furnishing it very appropriately and is determined to give her guests good fare, good lodging and pleasant attention. She will be assisted by Mr. Luther C. Duke, who will be found at his post in the office. Mrs. Wise desires and solicits the patronage of her friends in this undertaking.

To Whom It May Concern.

Whereas, it has been circulated that John P. Barrett did not intend to pay the premiums in gold promised by him to the subscribers of the Herald, this is to certify that Mr. Barrett has placed $105 in gold in my safe, where he proposes to let it remain until checked out to the lucky contestants.
Respectfully, W. T. KING.

Swiss Bell Ringers.

We were called on the other day by the business agent of the Swiss Bell Ringers, and we are very glad that he has decided to give the citizens of Hartford an opportunity of enjoying so rich a treat as that excellent company invariably gives. They will be with us on Saturday evening next, at the Court-house, and those wishing reserved seats will do well to come early, for we bespeak them a crowded house.

For a Club for either the Eureka Shirt or Dress Shirt I will send a Chart free on receipt of 25 cents tax for mailing and postage.

A. T. Stewart's Experiment.

The late A. T. Stewart once came to the conclusion that, although advertising was a good thing as a seller, it was of no great benefit to him, as his name sold his goods. To test it, one department only of his establishment was advertised. His business developed that of the others so immediately and so largely that Mr. Stewart concluded that to get the full power of his name it must appear in print. His advertising manager says "from that time he advertised more largely than ever in the papers."

Strayed or Stolen.

From the premises of B. F. Riley, near Newville, Ohio county, on 27th December 1877, a sorrel mare, about ten years old, some white in forehead, one white hind foot, about fourteen and a half hands high, a streak of gray in her mane, and shows signs of having had pull out. Also a dark bay mare, dark mane and tail, well made, about six years old, not gelded, about fourteen and a half hands high. We will pay reasonable charges for their delivery, or information leading to their recovery.

Changed Hands and Name.

The hotel on corner of public square, known as the Lyon House, has recently changed hands. Mr. L. J. Lyon and family have moved to their new home adjoining Mr. Lyon's grocery store, and Mrs. Fide Wise now has control of the hotel. It will be known hereafter as the Wise House. The house is very conveniently located, and Mrs. Wise proposes to keep it as it should be kept. She is furnishing it very appropriately and is determined to give her guests good fare, good lodging and pleasant attention. She will be assisted by Mr. Luther C. Duke, who will be found at his post in the office. Mrs. Wise desires and solicits the patronage of her friends in this undertaking.

To Whom It May Concern.

Whereas, it has been circulated that John P. Barrett did not intend to pay the premiums in gold promised by him to the subscribers of the Herald, this is to certify that Mr. Barrett has placed $105 in gold in my safe, where he proposes to let it remain until checked out to the lucky contestants.
Respectfully, W. T. KING.
